Golf + Gadgets: What could be greater?

by GEORGE ZICARELLI

Stewart Golf X3R Remote Controlled Caddy
$2,295

Mark Twain said, "Golf is a good walk spoiled," and if you're carrying your own clubs, who can argue? Stewart Golf builds this foldable, rechargeable, fully remote-controlled electronic caddy that Golf Magazine heralds as "your own fairway Ferrari." If a Jaguar is more in line with your tastes, simply deck out your X3R in British racing green. Now it's you that's spoiled, in a good way.

P3ProSwing Golf Simulator
$500 - $10,000

Good golfing weather in Canada will not last forever. The P3ProSwing simulator extends the season year-round and you can do it anywhere. Squeeze in a little practice putting before lunch or take out your frustrations out with long shots on the simulated driving range. And, unlike real life, you can do a fly over of 18 championship holes before teeing it up.
